

Tompkins County Youth Services Dept. Presents

Dignity For All Students Act (DASA)

This two-hour training will provide participants with an overview of the Dignity for All Students Act's (DASA) regulations and requirements, an understanding of the difference between conflict, rude, mean and bullying behaviors, and strategies for appropriately and effectively responding to bullying behaviors

Jennifer Astles-Steinmetz is TST BOCES' Youth Development Coordinator and Regional Dignity Act Coordinator. She has been a member of the Youth Development Program at TST BOCES for the last ten years; transitioning from a Service Specialist to Coordinator in August of 2013. Jennifer sits on the Board of the Community Coalition for Healthy Youth and the Advocacy Center, and is a volunteer trainer for the Advocacy Center's Enough Abuse Campaign.

When: Tuesday November 15, 2016

Time: 9 am to 11:00 AM (light morning refreshments)

Where: Human Services Building, 320 W. State/
MLK Jr. St., Ithaca Bev Livesay Conference Room

FREE No Registration Required

The Tompkins County Youth Services Department invests time, resources, and funding in communities to enable all youth to thrive in school, work, and life.