Activities

- February 2, 2023 – Sheriff Osborne attended the virtual town hall with Assemblymember Anna Kelles, the Vera Institute of Justice, and community organizers for a fact-based, solution-oriented community conversation about public safety in Tompkins and Cortland County. The panel discussed solutions that prevent crime before it happens to make our communities safe.

- February 10-12th, 2023 – TCSO participated in the STOP-DWI High Visibility Engagement campaign for Super Bowl weekend. Super bowl weekend is historically a deadly period for impaired driving. This combined effort with other local agencies is to bring awareness to the dangers of impaired driving, prevent injuries, and save lives.

Activities Continued

- February 14, 2023 – Officer Christian Turpo and Officer Kenneth Bellinger completed the New York State Basic Course for Corrections Officers. The training academy was sponsored by the Chemung County Sheriff's Office.

- February 16, 2023 – TCSO received a letter from a community member commending the professionalism and helpfulness of one of our officers.

Dear Sheriff Osborne,

We are writing at our own initiative, and not at his suggestion, to commend Deputy Prior for the assistance he recently gave us. A few weeks ago, we notified your office of a telephone scam that had upset us. A man pretending to be our son said that he had been in a terrible accident, arrested, and needed bail money. After initial shock, we discovered it was all a fraud, and notified your office.

Very quickly Deputy Prior appeared at our door. He was a very calming and helpful presence, reassuring us and providing great advice on what to do and what not to do. Some time later he even dropped by again just to check whether there had been any more problems.

As senior citizens we find it to be a great comfort to know that you have personnel of this caliber protecting us. We congratulate you and thank you.

- February 18, 2023 – The Tompkins County Sheriff's Office in conjunction with the Tompkins County Deputy Sheriff's Association hosted their annual Awards Banquet.
