Maureen Reynolds

*M*aureen Reynolds is currently the Tompkins County Clerk and is always available and willing to help anyone she can. She lives in Lansing with her husband, Mark, and together they have a son, Kyle Reynolds, and a granddaughter, Chloe.

In her role as County Clerk, Maureen has applied for and received grants totaling over $2 million and continues to apply for grants to benefit the municipalities in Tompkins County. Maureen also oversees the Tompkins County Department of Motor Vehicles, receiving an abundance of positive feedback from the area she serves. Maureen is truly dedicated to seeing Tompkins County flourish and thrive.

Leading an organization the size of the Tompkins County Clerk's Office often presents challenges, yet Maureen embraces them and works to instill her team members with the confidence and skills they need to provide top-notch service to members of the public. The Clerk's Office is one of the most recognizable aspects of county government and Maureen has been a leader in making sure that everyone who walks through the door gets the help and support they need.

Maureen has been recognized by many organizations during her career, including receiving the Harvard Ash Award in 2015, the Challenge Industries Business Partners of the Year Award in 2009 and 2014, the Cheryl Steinbach Annual Archives Award in 2014, the Laserfiche Run Smarter Award in 2014, and the Robert W. Arnold III Distinguished Service Award in 2013. She was also recognized by the Tompkins County Bar Association for outstanding service to the legal community in 2011.
