WDB DIRECTOR/ONE STOP MANAGER UPDATE

Ms. Mattick reported that the advanced manufacturing skill needs assessment is underway and the survey went live December 1, 2015. Key stakeholder businesses are being met with and it is hoped the survey will conclude in March and report give at the April Board meeting.

Ms. Bradac provided a handout (included at the end of the minutes) She reported that BEAM (Bridges to Employment and Academics Marketplace) is moving along nicely and it is exciting to see people who were “stop-outs” become reengaged with post secondary educational opportunities. Ms. Bradac also highlighted a “Talent Acquisition Series” that is being developed to tackle the challenges of the labor shortage in Tompkins County. More information will be distributed once the details are finalized.

Mr. Burrows asked Ms. Bradac if older workers use the Center. Ms. Bradac stated the Center see pre-retirees who are looking forward to retirement but still want to work in more flexible positions. The Center also sees individuals who took positions during the recession and are now looking for different opportunities.
HIDDEN IN PLAIN SIGHT: INCREASING LABOR PARTICIPATION RATES

The Board continued the discussion regarding growing the labor force participation rate in Tompkins County. The County’s unemployment rate is historically low at 3.4%. The population is not growing fast enough, and where it is growing, it isn’t in workforce ages. A large number of people (9,000-10,000) are not participating in the workforce at all. The Executive Committee has discussed conducting a study about those out of the workforce, but there are several unknowns. For example, what is the true definition of “out of the workforce?” Several things to consider that could be contributing factors include healthcare or childcare costs, individuals receiving SSI/SDI, language barriers, criminal history, trailing spouses, etc. More needs to be known about what it would take to reengage people in the workforce.

Mr. Stamm asked if there are other communities who have taken on this type of study that we can learn from. Mr. Kersey asked if the Department of Labor has data on individuals who are going in and out of the workforce.

Ms. Dillon stated a need assessment is being conducted by Tompkins Community Action that asks these types of questions. She stated she would be willing to modify their survey to include additional questions as well. The Office for the Aging has also conducted a workforce assessment.

Ms. Bradac stated that there have been discussions around this at SHRM meetings and what individuals in that group are finding is applicant pools are down as well the pools that are available don’t match the openings available.

The group discussed connections with schools and also with the Department of Social Services to see how successful individuals become. Mr. Mareane stated he would inquire with DSS about what info is available and what can be released. Mr. Mattheson stated that there is school data available through the national clearinghouse that goes out 12-18 months.

Mr. Haynes stated TC3 is undertaking a number of ideas to help increase graduation rates. Individuals from low socioeconomic conditions have lower success rates and TC3 is doing a lot in the way of peer mentoring. The activities that seem to work are very labor intensive, but there needs to be people available who can help individuals who are struggling, tackle day-to-day problems. Those who aren’t succeeding don’t lack intellectual capabilities.

There was also discussion about the fear individuals receiving public assistance have of losing their benefits if they enter the labor market. Ms. Peake noted that Cayuga Medical has mid level employees who receive Medicaid that are only willing to work a certain number of hours to preserve their benefits.

Mr. Burrows stated the long-term unemployed vs. those who are choosing to not participate need to be viewed separately. Why is a segment of the population actively choosing not to enter the workforce, what is keeping them out. The underemployed population also needs to be looked at. These two groups require less intensive work to get them to a reentry point.

ADJOURNMENT

It was Moved by Ms. Gold, seconded by Ms. Peake and unanimously adopted by voice vote to adjourn the meeting at 9:53 a.m. The next meeting will be held April 26, 2016 at 8:30 a.m. at the South Hill Business Campus.
