Important!

Our Self-Help resources are best experienced with a modern browser such as:

-  Google Chrome
-  Mozilla Firefox
-  Safari
-  Microsoft Edge

These browsers are continually maintained and receive updates from their support to ensure a safe, secure, and hassle free environment.

 Internet Explorer

Older browsers such as Internet Explorer, while common are no longer supported by their developers and often lack up to date plugins and features. These gaps in support can lead to a less than optimal user experience.

Public Safety EAP

Public safety responders are different. They put their lives in jeopardy every day. They have different stressors. Public Safety EAP is designed to address the specific issues that public safety personnel and their families face every day. Our Peak Performance Benefits are redefining the EAP. We start with all the traditional EAP counseling services designed to address significant life problems and we add Work/Life benefits to address the everyday problems involved in juggling work and family. But that's not all. We go one step further to deliver benefits designed to enhance quality of life not just for your employees and their family members, but for managers and supervisors, too. And we help all employees to achieve their Peak Performance best through training, coaching and wellness. Check the topics below to learn more.

38

HR/Supervisor Consultation

- ✔ Consultations are provided in virtually every critical area of human resource management.
- ✔ Supervisors and HR Managers can access Senior Counselors and Senior Professionals in Human Resources (SPHR) when complex employee issues arise requiring specific HR expertise.
- ✔ Account Managers are also available for consultation regarding benefits, EAP awareness strategies, training recommendations and other operational questions.

39

Voluntary and Suggested Referrals

Voluntary Referral

- ✔ Regular employee communication results in high employee utilization of EAP services

Suggested Referral

- ✔ Supervisors can be effective in suggesting a distressed or struggling employee contact the EAP

40

What Managers Need to be Looking for...

- ✓ Front line Supervisors and Managers are the first to notice changes in employee behavior and in the best position to address concerns with the employee
- ✓ Behaviors and presentations that are outside of the employee's normal baseline of behaviors
- ✓ Behaviors can include:
 - Excessive Absenteeism
 - Disheveled appearance
 - Unusually emotional or increased frustration/agitation
 - Inability to accept feedback in a constructive manner
 - Seemingly stressed, tired, anxious

41

Supervisor Approach for Suggested (Encouraged) Referrals

- ✓ "I've noticed you seem _____"
- ✓ "I'm concerned about you and wanted to see if you're okay"
- ✓ "I'd like to remind you that you have this great EAP benefit"
 - Provide EAP information to the employee
 - Offer the employee a private place to make the call
 - Remind that it's completely confidential

42

Administrative Referral Program

The Administrative Referral is a formal process to address policy violations and unacceptable job performance.

- ✓ When confronted with an employee performance problem, supervisors can consult with an EAP Clinical Counselor and determine the best approach. Options include Counseling, Coaching, and Training
- ✓ More than half of referred employees return to full productivity

43

Administrative Referral

- ✓ HR Teams up with EAP
- ✓ Geared to save valuable employees
- ✓ Should be used in conjunction with a progressive discipline process
- ✓ Employee must be physically and psychologically fit for duty

44

Types of Administrative Referrals

- ✓ Absenteeism
- ✓ Policy Violations
- ✓ Negative Interpersonal Interactions and Relationships
- ✓ Drug and Alcohol Policy Violations
- ✓ Performance Issues that could be improved through Coaching and Training

45

Administrative Referral Process

- ✓ Call the EAP and consult with one of our Clinical Counselors or SPHRs prior to making the referral
- ✓ Complete the Administrative Referral Information Sheet – HR access only-unless authorized by HR
- ✓ Meet with Employee who signs the Authorization to Release Information

46

Risk of Liability

Need To Know

- ✓ Information should only be shared with key individuals who must know about the issue

Limits

- ✓ Avoid any attempt to diagnose the person's problem in any written or verbal statements
- ✓ Focus only on work performance

47

On-Site Trauma Responses

- ✓ A trauma response counselor is available to address catastrophic workplace events
- ✓ Intervention by trained staff lessens the risk of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and hastens a return to full productivity

48
